

Lizabeth dei gratia Angliæ, Fran-ciz, & Hiberniz, Regina fidei defensor, &c. Maiori & vicecomitibus Ciuitatis sue Londoniensis, salutem. Vobis mandamus quod statim visis presentibus in singulis locis, infra Ciuitatem predictam & Suburb, eiusdem, tam infra libertates quam extra, vbi magis expedire videritis ex parte nostra, solemniter & publicæ proclamari fac. in hæc verba.

WHERE in the Parliament begonne and holden at Westminster, the first daye of March, in the seuenth yeare of the Raygne of our dearest brother Kyng Edward the Sixt, and there continued till the last day of the same month of March. It is there resited by one acte of Parliament, then & there made intituled an act reuising a Statute made in the xviij yeare of our most noble progenitor, King Edward the fourth, amongst other thinges it was then ordeyned and enacted by auctoritie of the same Parlyment, that no person should cary or make to be caried out of this Realme or Wales, from no part of the same, any manner of moneye of the coigne of this Realme, nor money of the coine of other realmes, lades, or Lordshippes, nor plate, vessel, bullion or Jewell of gold, garnished or vngarnished, or of Silver withoute the hinges licence, but suche persons as he dispensed with in the statute made in the second yeare of our most noble progenitor King Henry the Sixte, and other diuerse Statutes made vpon paine of felonye.
The which estatute and ordinaunce so made in the time of our said most noble progenitor King Edward the fourth, was made to endure from the feast of Easter in the xviij. yeare of the said King Edward the fourth, vnto the end of seauen yeares then next ensuing, which said estatute and ordinaunce so before rehearsed by auctoritie of Parliament, holden in the fourth yere of the late King of famous memory. Henry the Seuenth, was confirmed & established to be good & effectuell from the feast of the purification of our Lady in the yeare of our lord God a thousand foure hundredeth, foure score and nine, to the end and terme of twenty yeares then next ensuing, as by the same Statute also more plainly appeareth. And where also at the said Parliament holden at Westminster, in the Seuenth yeare of our said dearest brothers reigne, it is enacted by auctoritie of Parliament, that the said estatute & ordinaunce before rehearsed, made in the xviij. yere of our most noble progenitor King Edward the fourth, and euery clause, article, sentence or provision therein conteined, is by auctoritie thereof confirmed and enacted, to be good & effectuell from the first day of May then next ensuing, and to endure vnto the end of twenty yere then next following. As by the said act made in the seuenth yere of our sayd dearest brothers Raygne playnely appeareth.

NEVERTHELES vpon good and reasonable considerations vs mouing, we be pleased and contented, that from and after the publication of this our Proclamation, it shalbe lawfull vnto all notorious Marchauntes, and all and euery other person and personnes passing by our speciall lycence out of this realme, into any outwarde parties beyond the Seas, to carye with them for theyr reasonable costes and expences, the somme of foure poundes of any money currant within this Realme, or vnder and not aboue, or any Ringes or Signettes of golde or Silver vpon theyr fingers, without anye losse of lyfe, landes or goodes, or any other payne, forfeyture, imprisonment, or penaltie to be to them or any of them for the same. The sayde estatutes or any other Statute, ordinaunce or lawe heretofore made to the contra-rie in any wyse notwithstanding. Et hoc sub periculo incumbenti nullatenus omittatis.

Telte me ipsa apud Westminster primo die Maij. Anno Regni nostri primo.

God save the Quene.

Imprinted at London by Richard Iugge and Iohn Cawood, Printers to the Quenes Maiestie. Anno M. D. LIX.

Cum priuilegio Regiz Maiestatis.